A WOMAN'S WORK
sometimes reduces her strength to the depths of weakness—her devotion to household cares prevents sufficient rest and recreation. Thousands of women in this condition find Scott's Emulsion exactly what they need; it is predigested body-food so medically perfected that every drop yields direct returns in strengthening the organs and tissues and in making healthy, life-sustaining blood. Scott's Emulsion is devoid of alcohol or any harmful drugs, and overcomes tiredness and nervousness in a marvelous way.

SMALL FORTUNES WON IN MUTUELS

Four Persons Each Got $1880
for $2 at Latonia.

RACES START THERE JUNE 9

Sport Promises to Be the Greatest Ever Seen at the Cincinnati Track. All Railroads Will Give Reduced Rates During Meeting.

Chances to win a small fortune for two or five dollars will be given at the Latonia race meeting, which opens on Monday, June 9. The Latonia race track, which is situated just across the Ohio river from Cincinnati, is one of the most beautiful race courses in the West. The pari mutuel system of betting is in vogue at Latonia, and this system gives the small bettor a chance to win a fortune. In fact four small fortunes were given away there last spring on a two-dollar bet. In the last race on June 17, 1912, a filly named Wishing Ring won the race, and each holder of a two-dollar ticket was paid the sum of $1,880.50 when he presented his ticket to be cashed at the cashier's office. This is the largest winning ever recorded in the world on a mutuel ticket. Only four two-dollar tickets were sold on this horse in a pool of more than $7,000, so it can be readily seen how each dollar won nearly $1,000.

The peculiar thing about the running of this race was that the holders of these tickets knew nothing at all about the horses, but were just at the track to enjoy a day's outing. No dope, no workouts, no handicapping, were used by these persons. They just picked out their horse and bet their two dollars on it. It is also a noteworthy fact that three out of the four successful ticket holders were visitors in Cincinnati.

Only one resident of that city was lucky enough to pick the winner. One of the holders was a lady from Chicago who was visiting Cincinnati and was taken to the races by her host. Another holder was a man from Mt. Vernon, Ind., who came up to see what a horse race looked like, and the third out-of-town winner was a resident of Louisville, Ky.

This was not the only occasion that a small fortune was given away by means of the mutuel system of wagering. On May 7, 1910, a horse named Suzetta W. won at Lexington, Ky., and the holders of two-dollar tickets were paid $830.70 apiece. At the Churchill Downs track at Louisville, on May 13, 1911, a horse named Jack Parker won and paid the holders of two-dollar tickets $411.50 apiece. On May 2 of this year a horse named Silver Bill won at Lexington and the holders of two-dollar tickets were each paid the sum of $413.30.

The winning of these sums is only possible where the mutuel system of betting is in vogue. There are no bookmakers to pay jockeys to pull horses and each race is run on its merits. Only as recently as May 10, at the Churchill Downs track at Louisville, Donerail, the winner of the great Kentucky Derby, paid the holders of two-dollar tickets $184 apiece.

The racing season at the Latonia track opens on June 9 and continues for 24 days, closing on July 5. This season the finest horses in America will be seen in action at that track. The purses to be given away are the largest ever known in the history of Kentucky racing. Nine big stake events are down for decision, and among this nine is the Latonia Derby, which will be run on Saturday, June 14, and which determines the champion three-year-old horse of the year. On July 5, the Cincinnati Trophy stake will be run off, and this race determines the champion two-year-old of 1913.

These two stakes are big events at the Latonia track and always attract thousands of visitors. The Latonia Derby will be worth about $7,500, and the Cincinnati Trophy closed with 101 entries and will be worth about $6,000.

An average of over $4,500 per day will be hung up for the horsemen to run for, and they are sure to be out for the coin.

The Kentucky racing season opened in Lexington on April 26. Meetings followed at Louisville and when the horsemen reach the Latonia track their horses will be in the finest possible form. Last spring the greatest racing, the greatest horses and the largest crowds ever seen at a race track in Kentucky were in attendance.

The Cincinnati Baseball club is playing at home during the Latonia race meeting and many parties from this vicinity will make a week-end trip to Cincinnati and enjoy a couple of days at the races and wind up seeing a National league ball game at Redland Field on Sunday. All railroads within a radius of 150 miles of Cincinnati offer special round trip rates during the Latonia race meeting.

Following are the stake events and dates on which they will be run: Inaugural Handicap, $2,000, June 9. Clippetta Stakes, $2,000, June 11. Latonia Derby, $6,000, June 14. Harold Stakes, $2,000, June 18. Merchants' Stakes, $1,500, June 21. Valuation Stakes, $1,500, June 25. Quickstep Handicap, $2,000, June 28. Independence Handicap, $2,000, July 4. Cincinnati Trophy, $3,000, July 5.

The ideal carriage horse is the American trotting bred horse, with size, speed, courage, and the true trotting gait, with plenty of knee and hock action. In addition he must have a clean cut head and neck, style and finish, plenty of substance without coarseness.

Recognizing the demand for this class of horses, I selected Taylor Simmons 23489, a young horse which fills all the requirements of the typical carriage horse. If the theory that "like begets like" be true, he will produce horses of this type when mated with good mares. Through his veins flow the blood of the greatest trotting families. He traces twice to George Wilkes and five times to Mambrino Chief II. This is backed by the stout thoroughbred blood of Boston.

A few of the fancy priced ones sired by Taylor Simmons: Thendara, winner in the walk-trot class at the Blue Grass Fair in 1907; Louisville Horse Show and in the East, sold by Col. C. L. Bailey for $2,500; Alleen Powers, sold to Godfrey Priest, of New York, for $1,000; Little Nath, sold for $500 to Eastern parties. His get are always commanding the price that pay a man to raise good stock. Lien retained on colts until season money is paid.
